

Margherita Colley

Director | Highland & Illawarra Recruitment

After twelve years of working side by side with Highland Recruitment's founding director—Lynn Watson—Margherita took on the mantle of director in 2022. And, in April 2023, she took over Highland Recruitment's sibling, Illawarra Recruitment.

A trusted and well-respected recruiter, Margherita is passionate about helping businesses find the right staff; she has a reputation for always going the extra mile to source the best person for the role.

Boasting more than 30 years' experience in the industry, Margherita's career in recruitment began with the Adecco Group, where she recruited for Qantas, the Commonwealth Bank, Optus, AMP and other major players.

After moving into financial recruitment, Margherita was selected by Robert Half International—the largest financial recruiter worldwide—to launch their Australian division.

Margherita is proud and excited to be at the helm of Illawarra Recruitment and Highland Recruitment, steering both companies through their next era.

Margherita's Topic:

Count Her In: Invest in Women. Accelerate Progress.

Margherita's empowering presentation aims to spotlight the invaluable contributions of women in the local area, while advocating for flexibility, increased investments in well-being, education and professional growth for women.