

Marie Russo

Access Law Group

Marie is a dynamic young professional, dedicated to providing quality legal services to our local community and beyond. Marie is a Solicitor at Access Law Group, working in their Commercial, Criminal, and Disputes teams.

Prior to commencing her legal career, Marie worked in diverse industries with a focus in Marketing, Industry, Entrepreneurship, and Tech. Her valuable experience working with and for global companies has provided her with a foundational understanding of international business.

Marie spent her formative years working at her family's florist, a local business established for over 35 years. This ignited a profound passion for supporting small businesses, and this continues to motivate Marie's commitment to assisting small businesses with their ventures and growth.

Marie was recently elected as the 2024 President of JCI Illawarra. Marie also serves as an Executive Councillor at NSW Young Lawyers, helping to shape the legal landscape for emerging professionals.

In 2019, Marie was awarded the IWIB Young Business Woman of the Year for her commitment and contribution to the Illawarra business and social community.
