Scribbly Gum Photography

Rachel Lee is the creative force, founder and photographer behind Scribbly Gum Photography.

She is an International award-winning photographer, and most recently, received the Illawarra Women in Business award for Outstanding Customer Service.

Rachel excels at combining creativity with her technical skillset, to capture truly memorable images. Her photos celebrate individuality, family and business in their many forms and seasons. Whether that's through providing a business headshot which is professional yet approachable, or through capturing the power and femininity of a pregnant mother.

Clients of Scribbly Gum Photography love the way Rachel customises her creativity to suit their needs. If you're looking for a photographer who truly reflects your personality and preferences, she can help.

What sets Rachel apart is not only her technical proficiency but also her ability to create a relaxed environment where her clients feel at ease. Rachel's portfolio is a testament to her versatility and commitment. She is an experienced photographer with portrait photography indoors, outdoors and even underwater. Rachel's success can be attributed to her dedication to her clients and unwavering professionalism.

In addition to her regular work, Rachel has a Colours of Motherhood project underway that aims to support, validate and connect mums in the Greater Illawarra area. She has collected stories from a diverse group of mums, who have each shared a challenge they have faced in motherhood. Rachel has created an image to represent each story and together it will be presented as a photography exhibition in October, 2024.

Rachel is a volunteer photographer for Heartfelt, an organisation that provides photography services for families who have experienced stillbirths, premature births or have children with terminal illnesses. For these families, photography can be an important part of their healing process. Rachel has also supported and trained newer photographers starting their volunteer journey with Heartfelt.

Outside of photography, Rachel is a wife and a mum to 3 young boys and can often be found chasing them on the beach, or exploring our beautiful escarpment. Rachel is a sought-after photographer for clients interested in more than just a photograph—they seek an experience.
